

"Dehqonobod Potash Plant" JSC
Report on Corruption and Legal Violations - 2024

Report on Corruption and Legal Violations at "Dehqonobod Potash Plant" JSC for 2024

During 2024, 18 monitoring inspections were conducted regarding corruption and legal violations.

No cases of discrimination, persecution, or harassment were identified against employees or contractors who reported corruption or legal violations.

No cases were observed where personal or confidential information of employees or contractors of the company was disclosed.

In 2024, five cases of conflicts of interest were identified, and based on the conclusion of the commission, proposals were made to eliminate them.

No cases of money laundering or conclusion of contracts with affiliated parties for the supply of goods and services were detected.